"Able to transfer the learning immediately back to the workplace in highly emotional areas such as performance discussions, dealing with organizational change and team building. The learning in the workshop and the ability to follow up with Chuck was immensely helpful!" (The link to performance is a unique dialog about courageous conversations with the President of the Venetian and Palazza Hotels, and Sands Convention Center in Las Vegas.)

"I have been to a number of Emotional Intelligence workshops. If you can only go to one this should be it! ... All of us who participated felt moved by the sessions and left feeling far more knowledgeable and confident in our ability to apply Emotional Intelligence to our lives!"

“The sessions are dynamic, transformational, life-changing, rigorous, and highly beneficial in the workplace and at home!”

Why learn about emotional intelligence, and why choose the MSCEIT and the workshop led by Chuck Wolfe?

Emotional Intelligence is considered a key skill now and in the future. The MSCEIT, unique in its assessment strategy, measures emotional abilities. It was created by Yale President Peter Salovey and his colleagues.

In 1999 Peter Salovey and his colleagues sought Chuck’s help in teaching people how to use the knowledge of emotional abilities to improve people’s lives. In 2001 the MSCEIT publisher asked Chuck to co-write and deliver the original MSCEIT certification. The outgrowth of these early efforts is the Emotion Roadmap.

Most certification programs end with helping clients gain awareness. Chuck’s Emotion Roadmap™ is considered a best practice for helping individuals actually improve their abilities to lead and influence.

Chuck has also collaborated with Dan Goleman. In Vienna in 2019 Chuck worked as a faculty member for Dan’s Coaching Certification program. To listen to Chuck and Dan discuss how to use Chuck’s Emotion Roadmap with coaching <http://www.emotionroadmap.com/leadership-coaching> .

Chuck is a member of the prestigious Consortium for Research on Emotional Intelligence in Organizations and an Advisory Board member for the International Society for Emotional Intelligence.

Join Chuck and learn how to change the expressions and experience of your work groups from anxious and fearful to trusting and engaged.
